

Excess Life Sciences Insurance

An additional layer of protection when you need it the most, by life sciences insurance specialists.

Feature descriptions are summaries for discussion purposes only and do not modify any policy. Coverage is determined by the policy terms, conditions, and exclusions as issued and applicable law.

Proactive Protection...Before You Need it Most

At Berkley Life Sciences, our sole focus is in our namesake industry. We deeply understand the risks that come with years of development, innovation, and commercialization. To protect against catastrophic liability events that could jeopardize these innovations and businesses, we offer excess liability coverage designed specifically for life sciences companies. With limits of up to $15 million, this coverage sits over “A rated” insurance carriers and can be customized to fit each business's unique needs.

Excess Coverage is Available Over:

- Products Liability
- Premises Liability
- Employer Liability
- Healthcare Professional Liability
- Technology Errors & Omissions
- Cyber Liability
- Auto Liability
- Employee Benefits Liability
- Errors & Omissions
- Clinical Trials Liability
