- Medora West has over ten years of industry and risk management experience. She began her career as a health and safety professional with one of the world's largest oil and gas producers and, subsequently, the downstream sector. She completed her industry experience as a health & safety professional and Senior Site Supplier Quality Engineer at a manufacturing facility. During this time, she analyzed losses, implemented engineering controls, and successfully improved the existing programs. Most recently, Medora was a Property & Casualty Risk Engineer with a large multi-national carrier where she developed resources for clients, underwriters, and other risk engineers. Her experience included surveying businesses and properties to identify risk exposures in casualty and property lines.

- During her time in the insurance industry, Medora's primary focus involved assessing general liability and pollution exposures in complex risks, including chemical processing and distribution. Medora enjoys working with cross-functional teams to make long-lasting improvements that benefit the safety and production of clients.

  She received a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Safety & Health from the University of Central Missouri and a Master's in Public Health from Capella University. She is a Certified Safety Professional (CSP) and Certified Hazardous Materials Manager (CHMM).
